

Inya Economics

Job title: Research Intern (Paid internship)

Number of positions: Two

Duty station: Yangon with frequent field travels

Responsible to: Chief Research Officer

Organization Background

Inya Economics, a research organization, was founded in 2017. It is designed for economic policy discussion and economics research which are envisioned to the economic interest group.

Description of Research Intern Position

Inya Economics has been conducting Public Finance research project in project areas of the organization. Therefore, intern may work in these research projects relating to these issues and research assignments. The primary responsibility of the interns will be implementing in the process of data gathering primary and secondary approaches and data support to line manager and supervisor. In addition, ongoing research activities initiatives need to be supported as necessary. But major function is based on research implementation. For the data gathering tasks, data entry, research site needs to be visited.

Education:

- Any bachelor graduate who are interest in research as career.
- Prefer master degree

Required skills/ Experience:

- Language proficiency (English and Burmese)
- Research and analytical skills
- Computer literacy
- Able use Microsoft package
- Skills in Statistical package is desirable

Allowance

- We provide an allowance but prefer to work with financial aid if available.

Hours of work

- Full time (8 working hours)

Benefits

- Closely working with productive and action-orientated team
- Research training opportunities
- Opportunities to participate in research implementation process and research paper publications

- Extensive experiences gain working with respective professional from profit and non-profit organizations
- Networking with other development partner organizations

The closing date for application is 15 Septembers 2019.

Interested person need to submit Cover letter and Resume to inyaeconomics@gmail.com. In your email subject, please state “Application for Research Intern”.